Grouped Basic Aspects

Mercury (25°) & Saturn (14°) & Pluto (21°) Conjunct in Capricorn

Time Mercury Pluto Peak: Jan 18, 2019 @ 20ut (Jan 16@6ut to Jan 21 @9ut) 5d.3h
Waning

Capricorn: Capricorn is a cardinal earth sign ruled by Saturn. It brings in the traits of being responsible, disciplined and displayed self-control. There is a strong support of tradition, family, quality craftsmanship and music. On the darker side, it can be a know-it-all, unforgiving and condescending. It's an energy that can make you see the worst in things which can be seen as not liking things. It tends to bring in an ability to understand how to make reasonable plans and learn from mistakes. It can make it hard to accept the differences of others.

Mercury: Mercury represents the energy of the messenger which is highlighted through intellect and communication. It is directly linked to the exchange of information through the press, literature, internet, teachers, journalists and reporters. It is associated with all the areas of life that facilitate communication like schools, colleges, universities, TV, phones and cars, planes, trains with their associated infrastructure. It also deals with propaganda, fake news, business deals, rumors, political lobbying and positions in governments, or corporations, that deal with negotiations, writing law and debate. It can be thought of as the energy regarding how someone gets educated or how someone might educate someone else. It is eloquent, perceptive, intellectual and adaptable.

Saturn: Saturn is all about the energies of restriction and restraint that go towards building character. It is linked with lessons, limitations, regulations, formalities, tradition, order, rules and responsibilities. It has dominion over the elderly and deals with death. It is associated with sickness, epidemics, funerals, the national death rate, life expectancy and anything that causes mass public sadness or disappointment. It also represents the formal side of government, civil service, police, poverty and the borders. On a physical level, land issues and ownership, farmers, mining, coal and industries connected to metals and minerals. On the positive side, the energy drives a sense of discipline, focus, concentration and self-control. It is the focus that helps people achieve their objectives.

Pluto: Pluto represents the energies in the realm of the subconscious that deal with metamorphosis, regeneration, transformation and detection. It is the ruler of the underworld and all about secret information, hidden resources, hidden societies, violence, dictatorship, secret police, lone terrorists and all other aspects of life that are carried out in the dark hidden from public view like organized crime, espionage and rape. In literal terms, think about the sewers, mines, caves, bunkers and atomic energy. It can generally be thought of as a nasty energy, yet the results of its actions can be life altering. In the end, it brings growth, healing, rebirth, detection and knowledge that no other transformation can bring.

Conjunct: The conjunction points out a situation of prominence as it adds a richer emphasis on the heightened, strengthened and amplified planetary attributes within the sign that can be seen as either favorable or unfavorable.

- Uranus in Aries (29°) Square (~90°) Mercury Pluto

Time Uranus Pluto Peak: Feb 7, 2019 @ 5ut (Jan 1@10ut to Mar 25@7ut) 82d.21h

Libra: This is a cardinal air sign, ruled by Venus that tends to accentuate the intellectual characteristics of being diplomatic, fair-minded, social and cooperative. This energy loves being in harmony, balance, sharing and being unbounded. When in discord, it can be indecisive or non-confrontational. It can carry a grudge, but it strongly dislikes violence, injustice in any form. There is a fascination of symmetry, equality, balance that rules the energy to its core.

Pallas: Pallas energy is the female warrior that is a blend of Mars and Jupiter. It is that energy that accentuates hidden talents and skill. This energy is associated with wisdom, courage, strategy, skill and creative independence as is Mars, yet it is tempered by being politically crafty, diplomatic, tactful and intuitive. It strives for change without conflict, yet when agitated, all the skills associated with battle are brought into play. It is cerebral. This is the energy that holds itself to a high standard and expects everyone else to do the same. There is a natural link to the law of causation for this energy knows what is just and right without having to be told. It is linked to justice, legal battles and intuition. It is an energy that commands one to claim their personal power, yet done in a feminine way. The energy will highlight what is needed for battle or how one can stand your ground. If the highlighted talents are brought into play, expect success, honor and fame in the outcome of the conflict.

Square: The square is a high-discord obstacle situation where the matters ruled by the planets are blocked creating a condition of struggle, frustration and violent actions towards resolving the irreconcilable desires.

There is a strong support of tradition, family, quality craftsmanship and music. On the darker side, it can be a know-it-all, unforgiving and condescending. It's an energy that can make you see the worst in things which can be seen as not liking things. It tends to bring in an ability to understand how to make reasonable plans and learn from mistakes. It can make it hard to accept the differences of others.

Pluto: Pluto represents the energies in the realm of the subconscious that deal with metamorphosis, regeneration, transformation and detection. It is the ruler of the underworld and all about secret information, hidden resources, hidden societies, violence, dictatorship, secret police, lone terrorists and all other aspects of life that are carried out in the dark hidden from public view like organized crime, espionage and rape. In literal terms, think about the sewers, mines, caves, bunkers and atomic energy. It can generally be thought of as a nasty energy, yet the results of its actions can be life altering. In the end, it brings growth, healing, rebirth, detection and knowledge that no other transformation can bring.

Trine: The trine is an aspect that shows where two planets harmonize in a cooperative state to create a situation of good-fortune, ease of expression and greater rewards for the effort applied.

Pisces: Pisces is a mutable water sign ruled by Neptune. On the better side, this sign will bring in traits that align to being intuitive, gentle and compassionate. On the darker side, being fearful, sad, desiring to escape reality or being a victim. Overall, it's a friendly, wise sign that is ruled by Neptune. It is a sign that is in touch with the natural life cycles which helps bring emotional stability to situations.

Chiron: Chiron symbolizes strength through suffering. It is the recognition that pain leads to spiritual growth and perseverance is found from within. This energy flows out of health and disease as the experience helps build insight and respect for the conditions that bind the flesh to dampen the spirit. It is tied to social workers, doctors, nurses, psychologists, teachers, therapists, physicians, counselors, gurus, philosophers and herbalists. It touches on medicine, music, arts, massage, physical therapy and meditation. It is wise, patient inner guidance from the point of view of a shaman, spiritual guide or healer. It is learning through doing and dealing with the crisis that is unescapable. It teaches forgiveness and empathy for all life. Nothing is perfect and everyone lives with some form of pain. It helps show where the wounds lie, where the insecurities are and what we might be struggling to overcome.

Trine: The trine is an aspect that shows where two planets harmonize in a cooperative state to create a situation of good-fortune, ease of expression and greater rewards for the effort applied.

Libra: This is a cardinal air sign, ruled by Venus that tends to accentuate the intellectual characteristics of being diplomatic, fair-minded, social and cooperative. This energy loves being in harmony, balance, sharing and being unbounded. When in discord, it can be indecisive or non-confrontational. It can carry a grudge, but it strongly dislikes violence, injustice in any form. There is a fascination of symmetry, equality, balance that rules the energy to its core.

Pallas: Pallas energy is the female warrior that is a blend of Mars and Jupiter. It is that energy that accentuates hidden talents and skill. This energy is associated with wisdom, courage, strategy, skill and creative independence as is Mars, yet it is tempered by being politically crafty, diplomatic, tactful and intuitive. It strives for change without conflict, yet when agitated, all the skills associated with battle are brought into play. It is cerebral. This is the energy that holds itself to a high standard and expects everyone else to do the same. There is a natural link to the law of causation for this energy knows what is just and right without having to be told. It is linked to justice, legal battles and intuition. It is an energy that commands one to claim their personal power, yet done in a feminine way. The energy will highlight what is needed for battle or how one can stand your ground. If the highlighted talents are brought into play, expect success, honor and fame in the outcome of the conflict.

Aquarius: This is a fixed air sign ruled by Uranus or Saturn. It accentuates a progressive, independent spirit that is original and humanitarian. It's willing to help others, stand up for a cause, listen and hold an intellectual conversation. On the down side, it can be temperamental, uncompromising and aloof. There is an aversion to limitations, broken promises and boring situations. Uranus can bring in an eccentric or energetic attribute to how the influence is applied. There is a balance view of situations and a natural ability to solve problems quickly knowing intuitively what needs to be done.

Vesta: Vesta is a feminine energy that shows how you devote yourself to a cause and how you stay focused. It brings out the purest potential of the situation. It is thought of as organized, perfect, security, devoted. There is a tactile and sensual aspect to this energy due to the passion that is used to fully commit to the task at hand. At best, it represents the energy of how the perfect wife would behave. The image of a perfect wife. To that, it is thought of as security, sisterly, value oriented, yet also chaste. When not well aspected, there is lack of focus, fear of intimacy, family issues, self-abusive tendencies, insecurity and promiscuity. This energy is the living flame of passion that brings out the desire for the required mission.

Trine: The trine is an aspect that shows where two planets harmonize in a cooperative state to create a situation of good-fortune, ease of expression and greater rewards for the effort applied.

Scorpio: This is a fixed water sign ruled by Pluto that can be passionate, yet stubborn. This energy likes being truthful and right. It dislikes dishonesty or the revealing of secrets. It treasures the bonds of deep, true friendships. It is passionate and assertive, determined and decisive. It lives to accentuate emotions, but knows how to keep a secret. It loves the truth, facts and being right.

Ceres: Ceres represents the energy that is given to nurture. It is that joyful feminine energy that is exchanged during the act of growing and watching those that you care for become mature and whole. Yet, at the same time it represents that relentless energy of a mother scorned. It is linked to food, cooking, shelter, culture, tradition and the development of the spirit. It is also associated with the garden, seeds, fruits, vegetables along with hotels, motels, airports, stations which are the waypoints when traveling. There are deep connections to the abdomen both physically and emotionally. When afflicted, there are elements of both water and fire. Inwardly, it can manifest as depression, unbearable loss, withdrawal, grief, deprivation and hunger. Outwardly it brings a fiery retribution to those that are unkind. It acts like instant karma. There is no tolerance for those that mistreat others. This energy helps show what is deeply cared for and worth fighting for.
